

K-Love gives me the opportunity to listen to my favorite Christian music in the rural area that I live and it keeps me aware of community activities that I would not have otherwise known about. K-LOVE has lots to offer as a public interest: reminds us what is most important, has helpful information on family & marriage that is given in a loving effective way, encourages people to give and do their best. Please do not effect K-LOVE's outreach in any form.